

Wisconsin's Waterfalls

Some of the most spectacular waterfalls in Wisconsin are located along the south shore of Lake Superior in Ashland, Bayfield, Douglas, and Iron Counties.

State and county parks usually provide public access, although private property borders some of the falls. Please stay on established trails and take caution at water's edge. Some locations are remote and require hiking across difficult terrain.

ASHLAND COUNTY

Copper Falls State Park

2 miles NE of Mellen on Hwy 169. Park permit required. Enjoy camping, boating, swimming, fishing, nature trails, and concessions in the park. Open year round.

- Brownstone Falls on the Tyler Forks River (30 feet)
- Copper Falls on the Bad River (40 feet)
- Red Granite Falls on the Bad River

Morgan Falls on an unnamed tributary of Morgan Creek (70 feet)

Take Hwy GG north from Hwy 77 in Clam Lake or Hwy GG south from Hwy 13 in Mellen to Forest Road #187 in Marengo Township. Take #187 to #199 and stay on it past Three Lakes Campground, almost a mile north. Watch for signs and the parking area for Morgan Falls.

Bad River Falls on the Bad River

Approximately 6.5 miles due south of Odanah. Take Miller Rd from Odanah southeast to Pine Flat Rd and follow it south to Falls Rd. Approximately 3.5 miles west, the road ends and you must continue on foot for a few hundred feet to the Bad River.

BAYFIELD COUNTY

Orienta Falls at the Orienta Dam on the Iron River

Take Hwy 13 west from Port Wing, 5 miles, turn south on Orienta Falls Road and continue for 1.25 miles to Falls Spur Rd. Stop and walk a couple hundred yards to the river.

Little Sioux River Falls on the Little Sioux River

Northeast of Washburn in the Bayfield County Forest, no designated trail.

Lost Creek Falls on Lost Creek No 1 (15 feet)

Remote. Take Hwy 13 west from Cornucopia about a mile and turn south on Klemik Rd. Travel about 3/4 mile to the ATV/snowmobile trail crossing, park off to the side of the yellow gate and hike east on the ATV trail for 15-20 minutes, cross Lost Creek No 2 at the old bridge (creeks are NOT marked with names), continue on another 10 minutes to Lost Creek No 1. Either follow the sandstone bank upstream (more difficult) or stay on the trail, through a couple of curves and up a hill, watch for a footpath into the woods and to the falls.

Siskiwit Falls on the Siskiwit River

1/4 mile east of Cornucopia off Cty Hwy C on Siskiwit Falls Road.

Twin Falls on Larson Creek

Located in Twin Falls Park, 2 blocks west of the intersection of Cty Hwy A and State Hwy 13 in Port Wing.

DOUGLAS COUNTY

Pattison State Park

13 miles south of Superior on Hwy 35. Park permit required. Spectacular scenic overlooks, camping, hiking, swimming, boating and fishing. Open year round.

- Big Manitou Falls on the Black River (165 feet)
- Little Manitou Falls on the Black River (30 feet)

Amnicon Falls State Park

Take Hwy 2 east from Superior about 10 miles, turn north on Cty Hwy U. Permit required. Enjoy camping, hiking, nature trails, and fishing. Open May-October.

- Amnicon Falls on the Amnicon River—A series of seven graceful waterfalls
